Rosa
Mystica

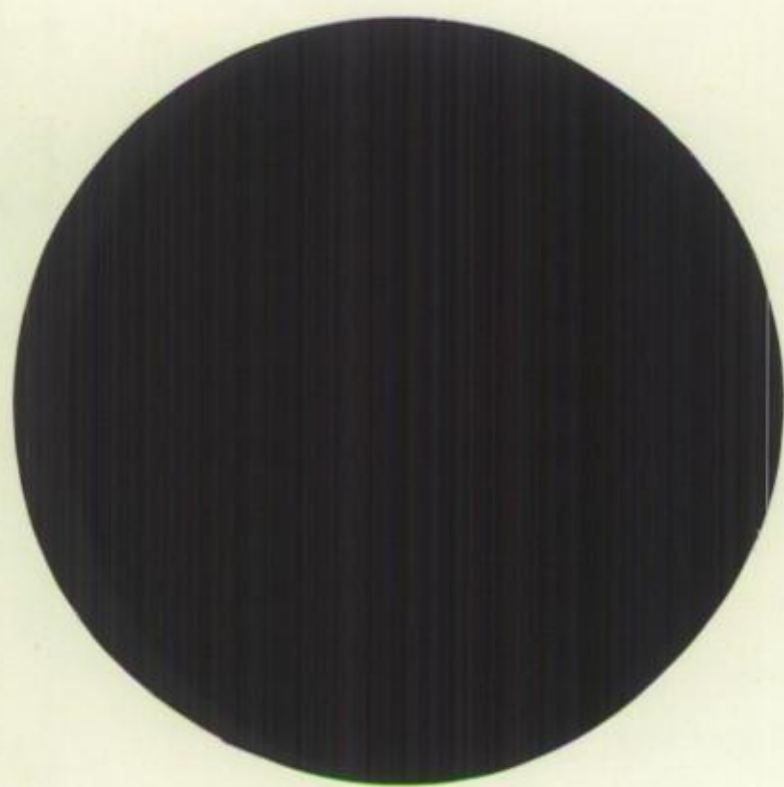

MARY ELIZABETH

Having chosen to scheme our yearbook on the architectural symbols adorning the facade of our "new" York Catholic school, we present to you our interpretation. The Star and Lamp of Learning, drawing their inspiration from the cross, enkindle within us a yearning and zeal to aspire toward goals set by our Catholic education. Just as the cross predominates this page, so too this Christian sign of salvation predominates in our lives — strengthening our faith. This faith spurs us on to offer to God, through the incense of our lives, all that we have gained through the years of our education here.

Striving and looking ever onward and upward, we observe the signs of progress — the guideposts to future frontiers. On the mounting stairway of our Brady Science Hall motif we are led to the heavens where ideals, like stars, set the course of our lives.

*Dedicated with Affectionate
Thanks*

To Our Parents

Perhaps we can sincerely and more maturely express to you our love and gratitude now — as we leave our high school days behind us. Through your dedicated lives you have nurtured us with love, and supported us in faith. By unselfishly providing our physical needs, by sacrificing for our Catholic education, and by counseling us with word and example, you have indebted us in a way we can scarcely repay. But we are grateful, and we want you to know we are deeply appreciative. And so, we, the staff of the 1963 Rosa Mystica hope this dedication, in a small way, says “thank you” to you — our parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Falvey, the parents of our president, Dennis, represent the parents of the Senior Class.

Rev. Leo N. Bierster, Principal

York Catholic High School's Seniors salute with pride, Father Leo N. Bierster, our Principal, who for the past nine years has loyally and enthusiastically upheld the noble traditions initiated by his dedicated predecessors. For your genuine self-sacrifice in the interests of York Catholic, may God grant you peace and grace.

If you want an immediate decision — The answer is "No"! In spite of this, across Father's desk well-deliberated decisions keep York Catholic in ordered efficiency.

Our Esteemed Pastors

With heartfelt appreciation we, the Senior Class of 1963, thank our revered Pastors for their untiring efforts in providing us with modern facilities and rich opportunity to obtain the best in Catholic Education.

Only now, at the end of four fleeting years at York Catholic, have we begun to realize the overwhelming task that has fallen on the shoulders of you, our good Pastors. In a very true sense, we owe to you the success of our efforts here.

We know, too, that above and beyond your demanding Parochial duties, you have spent yourselves fitting us to take our place as your worthy Parishioners of tomorrow. In leaving our happy high school years behind us, may we ask you to continue to remember and guide each member of our class.

REVEREND PAUL M. MILLER Chaplain
"Tell me your troubles — I'm your Chaplain."
 Father Miller, our beloved Chaplain, has won the friendship and confidence of all our students. His truly unique ways make him an indispensable part of our Faculty. We want you to know, Father, that you will always share our loyalty.

STUDIES . .

Reinhold Burger of Nievenheim, Germany was warmly welcomed to Y.C.'s Junior-Senior course of studies. His home, pictured here, helps us to get to know more about him.

Y. C. Welcomes Exchange Student

Students of York Catholic are proud to include in our 1963 yearbook, dedicated to our parents, the dear parents of our friend and student, Reinhold Burger.

Reinhold's American Family — The Wherely's. Of all who might have adopted Reinhold, we like to think this family the ideal one from the viewpoint of faith, social standings, parental devotion and bountiful generosity.

Spanish . . . Habla Vd. Español?

Club de Español — interested Spanish students continue to learn the "lingo" at their club meetings moderated by Y.C.'s own master of Spanish, Señor Gomez.

A word to the wise. . . .
Spanish professor, Dr. Juan Menocal of Rutgers University, takes a "breather" after lecturing on Communism in Cuba. Dr. Menocal attended the University of Havana with Fidel Castro.

Abren Vds. sus libros.
Señor Gomez pauses in the midst of our second year Spanish "scholars" as they prepare to read el español.

Read on, prompts Señor Gomez, as he listens to Joseph Gangloff's translation of la lección.

"Allez au tableau noir." This familiar phrase echoes through French class each day as these élèves tune their ears to the fluent beauties of the French pronunciation.

French

Parlez-vous Français?

Maidservant Doris Freed dutifully helps les Mademoiselles at a frosh coterie en français, while Maureen Payton anxiously awaits Monsieur B's surprise gift — a Buick. This year French has been offered to Freshmen for the first time and the response was so encouraging that we can expect our future Seniors to be quite proficient in l'art de français.

"Combien de fautes?" Sister Denise renders individual remedial assistance to Senior students. Les petits pièces, presented monthly, by class members, acquaint us with French history, customs, and people.

Latin

"Dicite in Latine"

Antics of the "Societas Deorum et Dearum."

Bacchus, the god of wine and revelry (Gerald Hoffnagle) has been picked up for over-indulgence by Jupiter's henchman (Bill Sterling), while Mercury (Mike Althoff) has been hauled in for speeding and smirks behind the ever beauteous and jealous Juno (Gregory Saggetti) who has ample reason to wonder if Jupiter (James Listorti) loves her.

"Dicite in Latine," urges teacher, Jean Gierlach, "We have green hats." Will students glibly answer, "Petasos virides habemus?" Happy dream!

Amid the perennial struggles of Julius Caesar, one audacious student finds the cameraman more fascinating!

Who needs a teacher? The intrigues of Vocabulary Study result from S. Berkheiser's query to her classmates of Sophomore English. Meanwhile, undisturbed, T. Křaub, L. Wagner, and M. Fitzpatrick review Lincoln's Speeches in a Califone-listening-mood.

English

The Medium of Expression

Cramming for exams. Fourth year English students take time out from reviewing to pose for a picture.

The Lucky Seven! Lester Kinard points out a suffix that can be used to build new words, as J. Swalinski, P. De-Stephano, G. Shinn, A. Eucalano, P. Lehr, and S. Brubaker follow in the "Scholastic English" magazine.

The Crazy "8's." Rendering their modern interpretation of traditional Christmas carols, the Crazy "8's" really make things "jump" in their Freshman English class. FRONT: K. Foster, A. Spagnola, N. Miller, M. Nickel. BACK: J. Sabol, R. Mayer, R. Fitzpatrick, D. Fitzpatrick.

Let's Get Together. Informal session of Second Period Juniors group for correction of weekly themes. G. Sansone, standing, acts as MC by calling symbols for correction. P. Mayer and G. Onushko aid German exchange student, Reinhold Burger, foreground.

To God

The most honorable service of all is performed by our faithful sacristans: J. Hoffman, J. Gunnet, M. Kelly, C. Glacken, M. Chronister, who prepare the altar for Mass.

Get the message? Father Miller, in the absence of Father Shuda, who was on retreat, pauses to inject a quip of humor into the lesson. Quick and attentive Seniors brighten with a smile.

I hope it lights! Dennis Falvey, President of the Student Council, proceeds with the annual Advent Wreath Ceremony through which the student body prepares for Christmas.

Through Religion

The Chair of Council. The well-worn chair from which Father Miller guides and counsels through daily confession symbolizes our confidence in him.

"For This is My Blood." Father Miller, our devoted chaplain, offers through the chalice the hopes and ideals of the students at Y.C. at weekly Mass.

Science . . . Symbol of

Mr. Rutschky's Quiz Kids ponder the gigantic problem of the annual Y.C. Science Fair. STANDING: Charles Rutschky; Sister Reinita, St. Patrick; Sister Miriam Regina, Y.C.H.; Sister Regina Annunciata, St. Rose; John Angelo, M.D. SITTING: Sister M. Ottilia, St. Mary; Sister Josephine Mary, Y.C.H.; Sister Mary Wilberta, St. Joseph.

The attention of these teenagers: L. Guillard, P. Leppo, K. Carroll, A. Schneider, P. Herman, is temporarily diverted from Rock-n-Roll to Rock-n-Minerals.

Because of increasing scientific interest, three new courses have been added to Y.C.'s curriculum: Mathematical Analysis, Advanced Biology, and Orientations in Science. Mr. Rutschky is shown here lecturing to his sophomore Orientations in Science class.

A Technological Age

This little piggy went to market. The age old nursery rhyme was brought into the limelight by R. Leville, C. Leib, K. Ayers, and C. Ream, senior members of the Advanced Biology class.

"All right — which dodo took my flask?" — this reflects the attitude of J. Gierlach, as well as many other Chemistry scholars throughout the year.

"A second faster and we could enter him at Churchill Downs," mused the senior physicists: C. Logue, D. Stough, S. Rothert, L. Kline, H. Topper and R. Husson, as they measured John Gentile's potential horsepower.

The Gentle Art

Seniors and Juniors
Study the Art and Principles of Homemaking

Sister Thomas Miriam

Members of our Home Economics classes gather with Fr. Paul Miller on the occasion of Dedication of the Sacred Heart. The art of hosting the Faculty followed the ceremony at a luncheon.

Future Homemakers? Senior girls concentrate in many varied forms on trying their hands at fashioning Paris creations or at least wearable pieces.

Right, Sue Keller hopefully anticipates a completed hem which Daniella Knisley seems to be doing with the greatest of ease.

Samuel Terroso

Get back on your own side, boys!! Even with the hindrance from the boys, the girls still won 22-4.

Physical Fitness at Y.C.

Below, "Now this is how it's done, girls," says Mrs. Manley as she shows the technique of an effective volleyball serve to E. Popovich, J. Ludwick, D. Knisley and P. Grimek.

Sink it, Coach! Pointers on foul shooting and ball handling are seriously demonstrated by Coach Sinkovitz to G. Sanders, J. Hughes, and D. Malloy.

Exploring the Realm of Math

Sister Thérèse Marie and her proficient "consultant" examine the Algebraic multiplication of these Frosh.

A perfect picture of "C K's" relaxed and democratic Trig class is portrayed by Dick Bartholomea as he is "caught in the act" of clowning around.

Varied responses are expressed towards Algebra II by Sister Dorothy Marie's Juniors.

Twin boys with twin triangles. George and John Shorb combine brains and Geometric tools to prove that the lines EC and FD are parallel.

Business Education

"Business dispatched is business well done,
But business hurried is business
ill done."

The Senior Secretarial Students, who actively participate in our annual magazine drive as Bankers, work diligently compiling subscriptions and balancing totals.

Competitive Speed is our Goal . . . Fluent characters of Gregg Shorthand seem no concern to this efficient Junior Business class.

Choney Rodrick, Patricia Eck, and Holly Craig find the adding machine a quick and accurate device for calculating a problem.

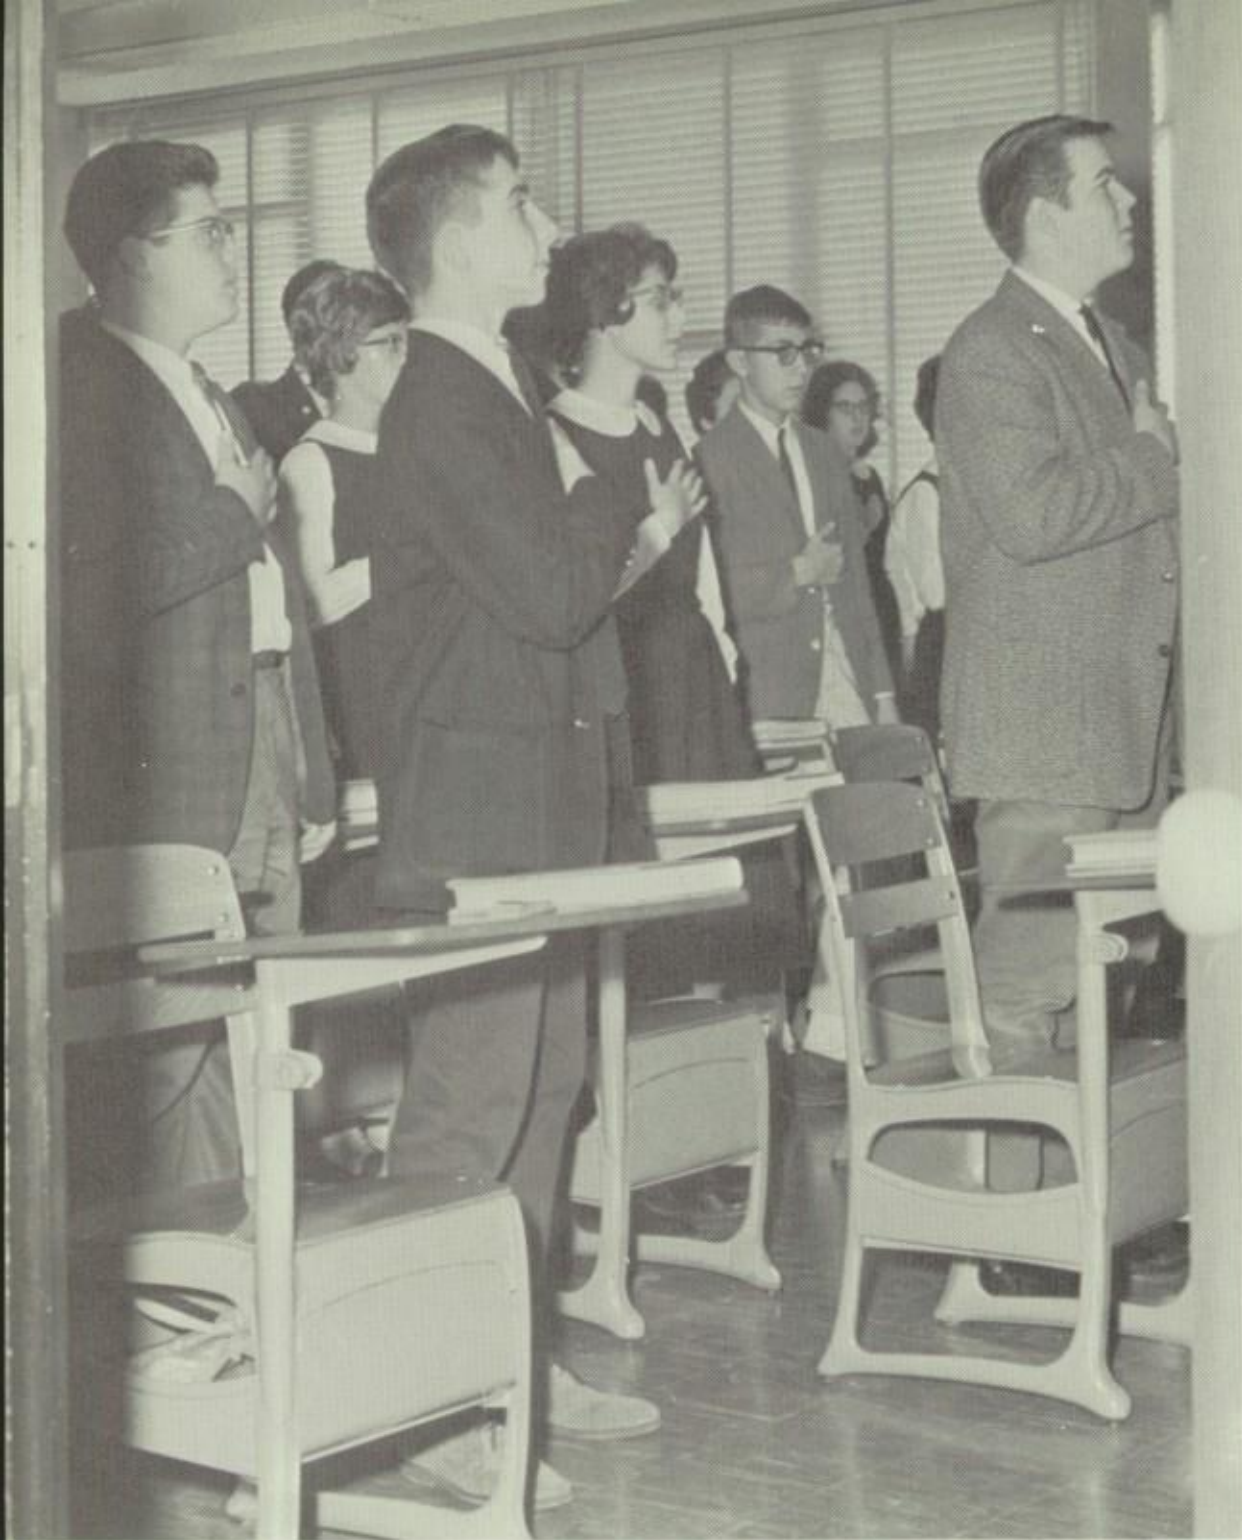

Brenda Becker and Charlene Heidler reflect proficiency and capability as Secretaries for a Day. Their duties in the York Catholic office include attending the switchboard and typing routine correspondence, thus putting into practice the skills acquired through the Secretarial Course.

College-bound seniors learn accuracy and technique for typing themes and term papers in Personal Typing class.

"I pledge allegiance to the flag . . ." This familiar pledge takes on a fuller meaning to these Sophomores in their World Culture class.

Mr. Hughes takes time out from the daily schedule of World History to review the current situation of the world. Assisting with a weekly newspaper are L. Snyder, C. Hays, P. Houser, and H. Doll.

Social Studies

Sister Patricia Mary points out and explains to K. Runkel and S. Terroso a country studied by the Freshman class of World Cultures. Throughout the year various parts of the continent will be studied objectively.

A break from classes comes for Coach Noel at lunch period when he enjoys speaking casually to everyone. Here Richard Staub pauses to ask Coach's view of the day's headlines.

See the funny picture? Maybe this is what Coach Forjan is saying to M. Duncker and C. MacDonald in an off moment before American History class.

Student Council

. . . Toward Civic Mindedness

To promote among student members a sense of personal responsibility for the welfare of the school by providing opportunities for serving one another and the school . . . To develop sincere, unselfish leadership . . . To foster better faculty-student relationships . . . To develop in every student a sense of civic responsibility through cooperation with the elected officers in activities which have their parallel in adult life.

. . . The Constitution of the Student Council.

Putting Student Council in first place, the Senior Representatives have given immeasurably of their time this year. They are Mickey Cravotta, Pete Clark, Bonnie Landis, Wayne Moore, Betty Jo Popovich and Hank Topper.

To site one influence of the Student Council — they have established the religious custom of daily recitation of the Rosary.

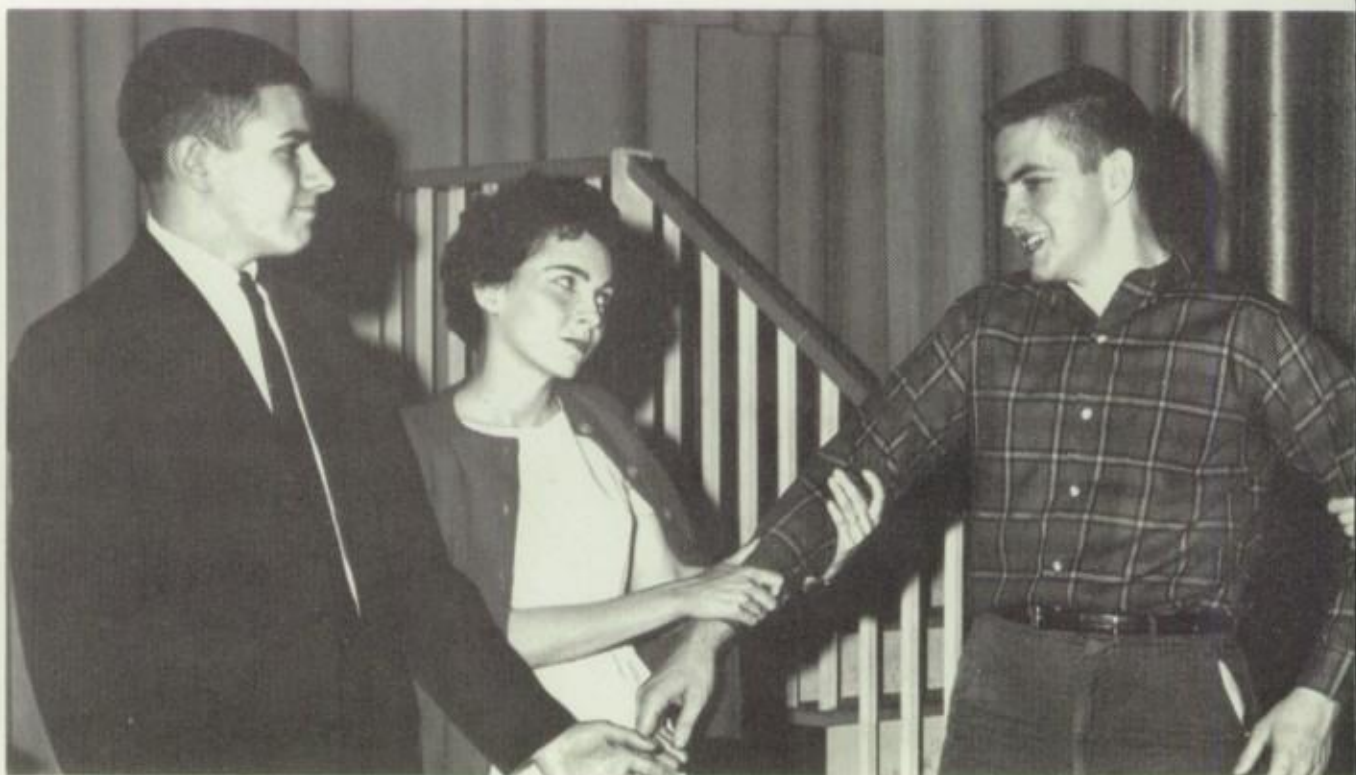

Vincent Butera and Dennis Falvey welcome Bishop Leech on the occasion of his annual visit to York Catholic. His Excellency humorously remarked that he hoped his white roses would not meet last year's fate!

"The actors are at hand and by their show
You shall know all that you are like to know."
Shakespeare

Caught in the middle, Mike Tisdale, (Jim Listorti) discovers that it can be very unprofitable to lead on two girls. Ruth Coates (Fran Nieves) and Jean Hughes (Cheryl Smith) "lay claim" to him as Tommy King (Vince Butera) stands aside wishing to be wanted.

Senior Thespians Present Comedy

Teddy Hughes (Phil Monteith) pleadingly tries to convince Sally Frazier (Kathy Angelo) that she is really the only girl for him. Hope Shuttleworth (Margie Chronister) and Maryrosalie Vogulhut (Dorothy Huber) wonder what happened to all the sweet things he told them.

YORK CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

When I say kiss me — I mean kiss me coaxes "Snazzy" Mitchell (Bill Kohlstrom) as he receives a reward from his heroine Amy Hughes (Brenda Becker).

Whispers from the wings . . . Vigilant Prompts and Prop Girls render their valuable assistance whenever necessary. Clockwise from the lamp: C. Heidler, M. Cravotta, E. Popovich, M. Larkin, K. Burns, S. Adams, L. Feeser, and T. Miller.

Stage Crew providing scenic background are B. Day and L. Klein. Señor Gomez double checks all the details.

"Mirror, mirror on the wall" — "Do I really look like Mrs. Hughes?" quizzes Joan Comtois as Mrs. Manley applies make-up.

Class of 1962 Return's Three Act Play Double Cast Featured

"I know. We hit a streetcar!" Snazzy (M. Kohltsrom) explodes to Lipscomb (H. Topper), Teddy (J. Hughes), Mrs. Coats (L. Bedard), Amy (H. Craig), Mrs. Hughes (J. Comtois), Mr. Hughes (R. Husson), and Mike (J. Listorti) before "gallantly" fainting.

Ready to hurl a vase at Charles (P. St. Onge), Mildred (T. Rose), draws astonished reactions from Mike (J. Listorti), Jean (D. Trimmer), Tommy (J. Hunt), Mrs. Hughes (C. Logue), and Mr. Hughes (R. Husson).

Our starry-eyed Queen begins her reign over the evening by honoring Vice-President Butera with a dance.

It was a dream come true for Bonita Landis when President Falvey proclaimed and crowned her Queen of the 1962 Homecoming.

Our students experienced an air of high society when formally introduced to chaperons Father Bierster, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Husson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Salinger, and Mr. and Mrs. William Sterling.

Winter Wonderland

On November 24, 1962 the York Catholic High School Lobby was remarkably transformed into a Winter Wonderland of snowflakes and evergreens. A captivating silver and blue sleigh served as a throne for our lovely Queen Bonita, Landis.

All came clad in their finery and ready for an enchanting evening of enjoyment. As we entered, we were cordially greeted by our chaperons and moved on into the Lobby to listen and dance to the music of Bill Collins' Orchestra.

At the magic hour of ten the evening came to a climax with the announcement of our Homecoming Queen. Her reign was short but of lasting memory.

Queen: Bonita Landis. Court: Michele Grawotta, Mary E. Vandegrift, Joyce Hoffman, Diane Trimmer, and Karen Dibert.

Forensics .

Representing York Catholic at all interdiocesan debates are: S. Rothert, F. Euteneuer, A. Marks. STANDING: W. Kohlstrom, P. Monteith, H. Topper, and J. Listorti. Through debating they learn the importance of poise and logic in presenting their point of view.

Thanks to Father Shuda's planning, Lebanon Catholic's debate team was able to meet York Catholic's in a practice round. York Catholic's Negative team listens intently as one of their opponents gives her five minute rebuttle.

. . . Toward Articulate Catholic Leadership

Declamation

Thought is man's most precious possession. When expressed, it becomes priceless, and forms the basis of our human relationships. Today's Educators voice concern over the inability of the student to convey his ideas clearly and concisely. The Annual Diocesan Oratorical Contest was initiated by our own Bishop Leech to promote the cause of Public Speaking among the students.

Through Junior Forensics and the Optimist Club, the beginner becomes acquainted with the fundamentals of rhetorics. Advancing to Debate, Declamation, and Originals, he strives to acquire poise, expression and confidence. He now competes in interscholastic contests, preparing for the Diocesan Oratorical competition. Through participation in Forensics the student of today is prepared for an articulate future.

"Where free men shall stand" . . . declaims C. Logue to the other members of the Senior Declamation Team. SEATED: V. Butera, and K. Angelo.

Optimist

Freshman R. White represented West York Club in competition for probable area and state winnings.

Originals

Good luck, Boys! R. Husson and R. Harteis with Moderator Father Shuda leave Y.C. to compete in Original Oratory at St. Joseph Academy.

Sounds

These 23 seniors have the distinction of being four year members of the department. Of the 72 members of the class of 1962 who joined the department as Freshmen, these are the ones who chose to stay in music. Awards Day finds them lettered and certified.

Music

Each Spring the Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors in the music department vote for a junior student director. This office is an honor and the students who are elected to it assume serious responsibilities. Leading their organizations for the 1962-63 year are: Joyce Slaughter, Band; Judith Ludwick, Orchestra; Joan Comtois, Choir and Freshman Girls' Chorus; and John Hunt, Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs and Dance Band.

Our orchestra director, Mr. Roman Shuman, has been associated with our school for many years. His musicianship and conducting skill have added to all the performances of the music department. Mr. Shuman is the musical conductor of the annual operetta.

This is a typical after school practice and it shows part of our orchestra rehearsing the music for the annual operetta. Our 1963 production will be "Brigadoon."

This tableau is one of six which were featured in our Christmas Musicale. The program was performed by the Band, Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, Choir and Freshman Girls' Chorus. It was attended by parents and friends who joined in the singing of the familiar carols.

Mr. Stinger, long associated with the school as drum instructor, has this year taken over the directorship of the school Band.

Mr. Schmidt always has a wide smile when our band whom he so capably drills wins an "excellent" rating as they did this year in Harrisburg.

The Band, an important organization at York Catholic, performs annually in competition at Washington D.C. Their in-school activities are assemblies, football games, and Christmas Concert.

The "Crescents" are a newly organized Dance Band at Y.C.H.S. Members, from L. to R. are: R. Feeser, guitarist; R. Husson, piano; G. Seghetti, string bass, B. Condon, drum; J. Hunt, drum; E. Frantz, alto sax; J. Hughes, trumpet; M. Althoff, alto sax; J. Vottero, trumpet; J. Tutino, tenor sax; R. Burger, trombone.

Able captained by C. Smith, Y.C.H.S. Color Guard always brings honor and glory to our school. These girls practice long and late hours, and their precision and routines are always enjoyed and appreciated. FRONT ROW — C. Smith, captain, M. A. Zech, E. Pettigrew, J. Comtois. BACK ROW — P. Grimek, B. Klunk, F. Stevenson, J. Strine, B. Landis.

John Hughes, a four year member, has held first chair in the trumpet section of both Band and Orchestra. He was selected as soloist for the 1962 Diocesan Band Festival.

Younger Than

The evening begins for F. Euteneuer, and L. Melbert by greeting Father Bierster. After chatting a few moments, the couples will proceed through the reception line.

Younger than Springtime was the melodious theme for the long-awaited Junior-Senior Prom. The couples came filled with excitement for the evening ahead. First on the agenda we greeted Father Bierster and the Chaperons. Throughout the night the couples danced and listened to Bill Collins render strains accenting our Spring Theme. The highlight of the evening came when each Senior-Couple walked in the annual Promenade. The favored couple was chosen as King and Queen to reign over the remainder of the Prom. The momentous hours came to a close all too soon when the clock struck twelve. The couples left with memories of Younger than Springtime that will last a lifetime.

Many months prior to the prom these busy co-workers plan each event of the evening. The Prom Committee's objective is to see that this is the best prom York Catholic ever had.

Springtime

Whether dancing or relaxing, smiles and laughter accent the gaiety of the evening. Resting for the next dance are J. Heller, J. Loeper, V. Vangreen.

Coach Sinkovitz crowns Mary Eileen O'Toole as Queen of the Prom. The King Cosimo Sciorino feels proud to be so honored.

Faithfully chaperoning our Prom, faculty members casually await the arrival of the excited promenaders.

Rosa Mystica

"Let's Tell the Whole Story."

STAFF — From left to right, BOTTOM ROW: M. Chronister, B. Turner, M. Wertz, L. Melbert, M. Vandegrift, SECOND ROW: M. Dorsey, S. Rothert, J. Hoffman, C. Logue, T. Miller, THIRD ROW: N. Clineburg, W. Moore, K. Burns, P. Bell, FOURTH ROW: P. Monteith, A. Marks, F. Mullen, T. Rose, L. Omlar. Not Present: J. Listorti, M. Cravotta, J. Frey, V. Vangreen.

Sports Editors — Michael Wertz, Wayne Moore.

"Three heads are better than one." Fulfilling this age old maxim, our moderator, Sister Agnes Angela, A. Marks, and S. Rothert, pool their talents at picture planning.

C. Geubtner, G. Helfrich, D. Tome, Sr. Joseph Leona, V. Rodemyer, J. Seaseley, J. Heller, A. Barry, R. Hawkins, L. Feeser.

Department reporters smile their appreciation for our Principal's "impromptu press conference." Clockwise: Father Bierster, M. Tortorici, A. Drayton, M. MacKinder, M. Larkin, M. Schell. ("Off" really stands for office. Any other interpretation is coincidental.)

John Hunt, top left, photographer, gets varying comments on his sports photo. Dennis Long, left, thinks they're fair, Terry Groft is delighted with them, but William Rose is undecided.

Spectator

"Alert Catholics Read the Catholic Press."

When the hurley-burley's done — our co-editors, Robert Husson and Louise Bedard, face the world with a relaxed yet dignified air.

Lay-out, headlines, circulation problems challenge even these clever seniors, Fred Euteneuer and Bill Kohlstrom.

Active Clubs

As York Catholic increases in Students and Faculty, so too, do its Activities and Clubs. Influenced by the popular demands and interests of the students, our school has added the Future Teachers', Future Nurses', and Art Clubs to its scope of activities. These newer clubs, as well as the older clubs, give experience and guidance to help the students develop leadership, social relations, and responsibility.

On the other side of the camera for a change! Members of the Camera Club L. Omler, J. Allen and M. Schell illustrate the different types of lenses.

Their names are legion but so are the tasks! Senior Library Aides, a voluntary, service club, devote study periods and out-of-school time re-shelving and checking out. Sister Joseph Leona is Y.C. librarian and moderator.

... Old and New

Teachers of Tomorrow — Another club initiated into Y.C. in '63 is the Future Teachers' Club. Members from left: W. Moore, M. Strong, M. Larkin, J. Hoffman and J. Comtois.

Y.C.'s Mission Club reflects activity in its spiritual, monetary, and physical projects. In addition to their prayers and collections, the members have been collecting rosaries, shoes and bandages for Korea.

Paint and Paint Brushes! "These are my favorite things." Although they may not have turned out a genuine "Mona Lisa" as yet — our new Art Club members strive to increase their artistic abilities. Mrs. L. Steckler moderates.

Rough Gridiron Becomes Rougher

"What's the matter in there?" Y.C.'s "Big C's" Coach Krepps, Head Coach Sinkovitz, and Coach Forjan answer the team's many questions from their vast knowledge of the game.

Sporting a turnout of over one-hundred candidates for a well-balanced squad, York Catholic steered into the season with good potential and high hopes.

The first test found the Fighting Irish meeting a tough Middletown squad. Despite a fine offence, the Raiders snatched a 21-12 victory. Pete Clark and John Chrismer scored touchdowns for their Alma Mater.

The Trojans of Suburban were next on our schedule of hard-nosed football. With the loss of Sophomore halfback Bob Brubaker who suffered a broken leg in the succumbed to a 25-6 defeat. Ike Eisenhower carried the ball into the end zone for Y.C.

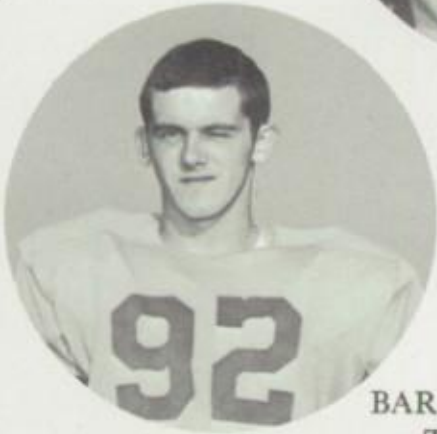

York Catholic traveled to Waynesboro only to face defeat 34-6. John Gierlack tallied for the only Irish score.

Leg injuries took Junior quarterback Joe Gangloff and Sophomore halfback Ike Eisenhower out of action as the Irish were prey to Southwestern with a 26-0 loss.

The York Catholic squad was boosted highly by the loyalty and hard work of the cheerleaders, the band, the color guard. The fine turnout of the fans, who so loyally supported our team also gave courage and stamina to the boys on the squad.

"First and Ten, Do It Again!"

Y.C.'s defense goes into action as Pete Clark, Stan Witman, John Chrismer, Jack Shorb, and Ike Eisenhower quickly surround a Lancaster Catholic Crusader.

Joe Gangloff pulls down a would-be ground gainer with Barry Palmer displaying potential line defense.

Mike Misterka and Dan Malloy encircle a Delone Squire to stop his advances.

"Block that punt!" The hard-nosed Irish line attempts to block a punt as John Chrismer awaits its receiving.

The Irish headed into the second half with a much needed win over St. Francis Prep. by 15-12. Dan Malloy scored 8 points and Gary Courtade contributed 6.

Showing much aggressiveness, York Catholic held the always constant threat, Bishop Mcdevitt to 12 points in the first half but finally succumbed to a bitter attack with a 26-0 loss.

Delone handed us the worst defeat of the season with a 45-0 shutout. York Catholic concluded its football season by bowing to Lancaster Catholic 20-0.

Pete Clark displays fine pass defense by knocking down an intended Middletown pass, while John Chrismer and Don Shellenberger guard the play.

Irish . . .

During halftime, Y.C.'s J.V.'s join West York's Cheerleaders in the traditional circle cheer for both teams.

Mickey Cravotta, Varsity Captain, and Carol Racine, Junior Varsity Captain, are the sparks behind our well-disciplined cheerleaders.

They're Great

Favorite Spirit Songs and the rhythm of music go hand in hand as demonstrated by a few varsity members.

The cheerleaders supply themselves with protein builders to keep up with our fast-scoring team.

The varsity cheerleaders lead the school in singing our school song at our first open-air pep rally.

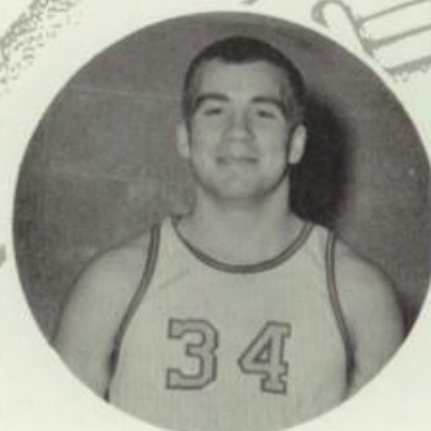

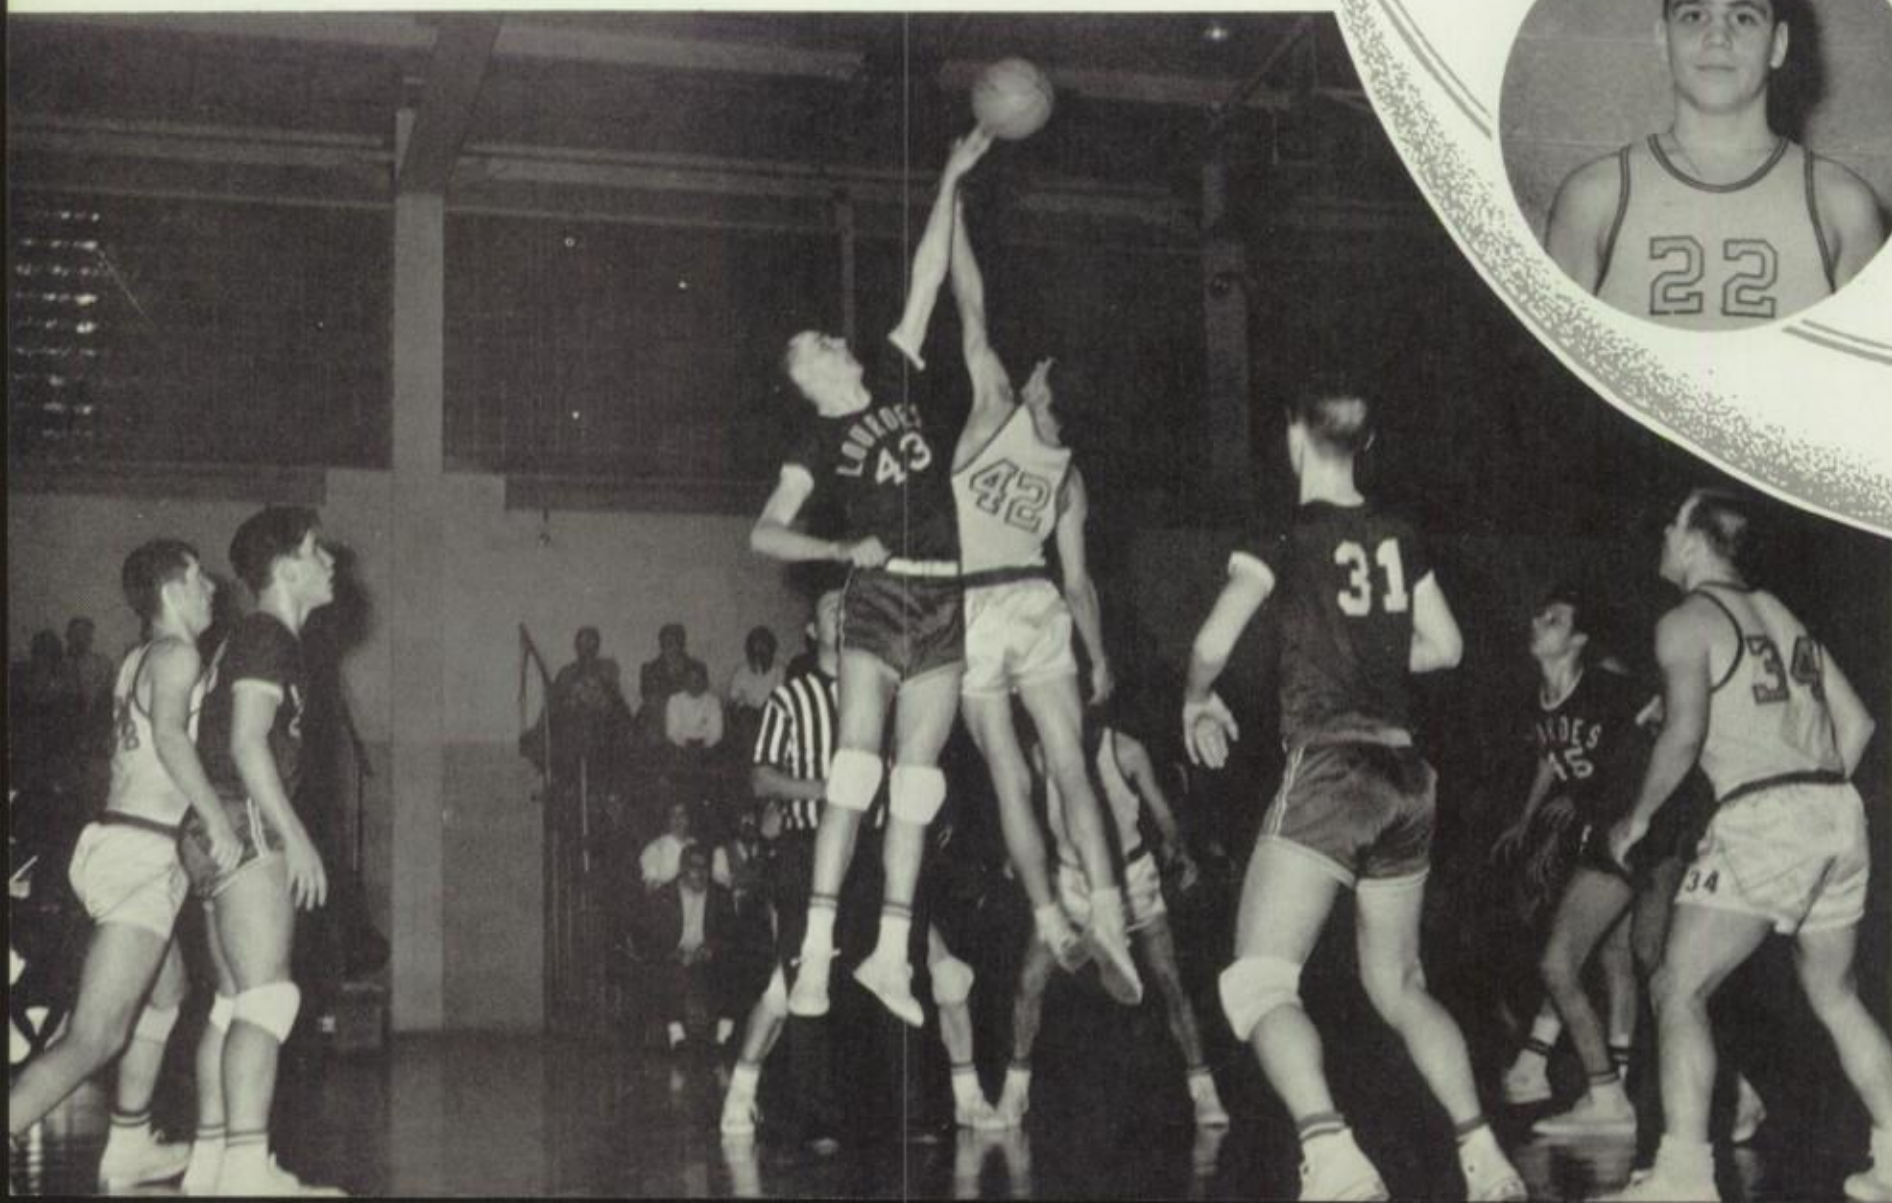

A fine pass from Pete Clark to Dave Houck sets up one of Coach Forjan's scoring plays.

Ripping the Cords

Jump, Steve! The Irish Center soars high in the air to mark the beginning of another exciting game.

PETE CLARK

Guard

MIKE MUSSO
Forward

Up and in! Dick Bartolomea adds to the Irish score with a jump shot as Mike Musso positions himself on offense.

Mike Keesey uses his scoop shot to show York Catholic fans how he became our leading scorer.

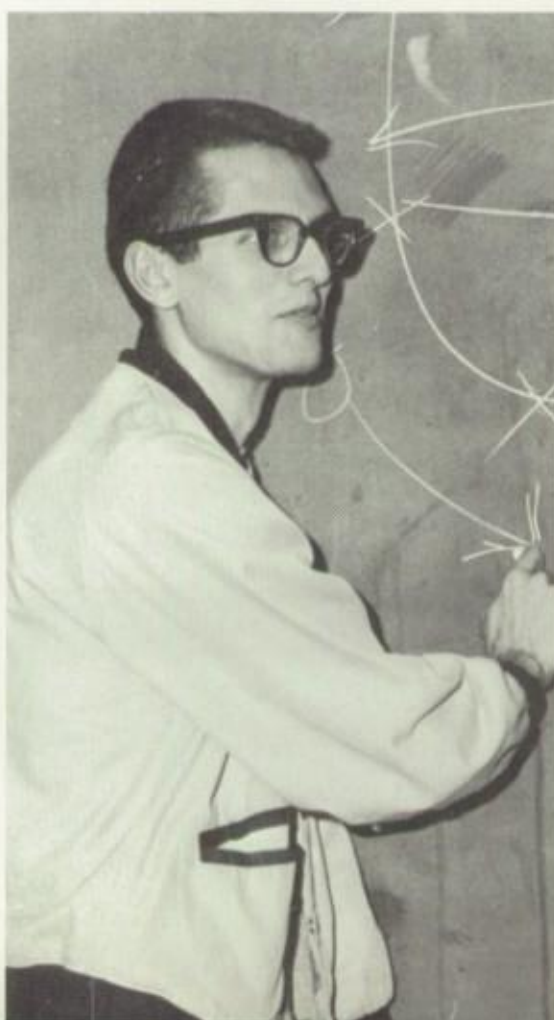

FRONT ROW: D. Houck, M. Musso, K. Knouse, D. Bartolomea, P. Clark, M. Eisenhower.
BACK ROW: J. Linden, S. Petrany, M. Hickey, M. Keesey, J. Vranich.

"Come on fellas!" I'll show you my way to move the ball." Coach Forjan proves through his vital plays and broad knowledge of the game why he has become the greatest Coach in the Central Penn League.

Batter Up

Head Coach Noel signals to a Y.C. base-runner to set up the strategic play.

Junior, Mike Keesey, belts out a hit to put the Irish in a scoring position.

Joe Zagurski, who contributed greatly to our batting power, blasts a ball into deep center field.

Pars and Birdies

Representing York Catholic on the greens this year are: Bob Angelo, Mike Wertz, Jack Rooney, Gary Stewart, George Shorb, and Joe Gangloff.

Junior Jack Rooney sends his iron-shot straight to the green and insures himself a par.

Caught in the inevitable sandtrap, Senior Mike Wertz calmly places his shot near the pin and takes over the situation.
